Mahaiwe Presents Arlo Guthrie

Great Barrington, Mass.— Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center will present folk music icon Arlo Guthrie on Sunday, October 30 at 7:00pm. “Everybody loves Arlo,” said Mahaiwe Executive Director Beryl Jolly. “He is a Berkshire audience favorite and we’re delighted to welcome him back to the theater for another hometown concert.”

Arlo Guthrie shares timeless stories and unforgettable classic songs as he carries on the Guthrie family legacy. With his singular voice as both a singer-songwriter and social commentator, he has maintained a dedicated fan base that spans the globe. On the heels of the sold-out Alice’s Restaurant 50th anniversary tour and his personal introduction before the special screening of the movie at the Mahaiwe last year, Guthrie plunges into another musical trip that promises to be a flashback-inducing, mind-expanding show.

For the Running Down The Road Tour, he will again hit the road with his band to fully embody the best of his catalogue from the late sixties and early seventies. Featuring outstanding cuts from Arlo (1968), Running Down The Road (1969), and Washington County (1970), along with many others, this tour exemplifies the sound that shaped a generation.
