Mahaiwe Cancels Events Through April 10

Great Barrington, Mass.—Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center announces the cancellation of all events from Friday, March 13 through Friday, April 10.

“With the health and safety of our community in mind and in accordance with Commonwealth of Massachusetts, Town of Great Barrington, and other recommendations, we are dimming the lights at the Mahaiwe for the coming month,” said Mahaiwe Acting Executive Director Janis Martinson. “During that time, we will be actively communicating with our patrons, and working to be ready to welcome audiences back when that is possible.”

The canceled events include Norman Rockwell Museum’s Finding Home: We Are Stories on March 13, Met Opera in HD broadcasts of Der Fliegende Hollander on March 14 (including the pre-broadcast lecture by Scott Eyerly) and on March 18, Mahaiwe Education Programs school-time presentation of The Boy Who Could Sing Pictures on March 19, Close Encounters With Music’s The French Connection - Saint-Saëns, Debussy, Fauré on March 21, Mahaiwe Education Programs school-time presentation of Snowy Day and Other Stories on March 25, screening of The Blues Brothers on March 26, London’s National Theatre in HD broadcast of Cyrano de Bergerac on March 28, Bolshoi Ballet in HD broadcast of Romeo and Juliet on March 29, and screening of Pulp Fiction on April 2.

For ticket exchanges and refunds, please call the Mahaiwe box office at 413.528.0100 during standard box office hours, which are Wednesday through Saturday from noon to 4:00pm. The theater building will be closed to the public during this time.
About the Mahaiwe
Located in downtown Great Barrington, Massachusetts, the Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center is the year-round presenter of world-class music, dance, theater, classic films, Live in HD broadcasts, and arts education programs for the southern Berkshires and neighboring regions. The intimate jewel box of a theater opened in 1905. Since 2005, the performing arts center has hosted over 1,500 events and welcomed over half a million people through its doors. More than 22,000 students from 73 different schools have benefited from the Mahaiwe’s school-time performances and residencies. For more information, see www.mahaiwe.org.
