Mahaiwe Postpones Madeleine Peyroux Concert

Great Barrington, Mass.—Due to the current COVID-19 state of emergency, the Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center announces the postponement of the Madeleine Peyroux Trio concert that was scheduled for Friday, April 17 at 8:00pm. It will now take place on Friday, June 5 at 8:00pm.

“Singer-songwriter Madeleine Peyroux is known for her soft, evocative voice,” says Mahaiwe Acting Executive Director Janis Martinson. “Her music casts a sober, poetic, and at times philosophical eye on the current state of the world. What could be better when we gather together again?”

Madeleine Peyroux will perform with keyboardist Andy Ezrin and drummer Graham Hawthorne as a trio called The Dreamers. Her music challenges the confines of jazz, venturing into the fertile fields of contemporary music with unfading curiosity. Tickets are $40 to $75.

Tickets purchased for the original concert will be valid for the new concert date. For patrons who are unable to attend the new concert date, exchange credit, refunds, and the option to donate the ticket to the theater are available by contacting the Mahaiwe box office at 413.528.0100 during regular box office hours, which are Wednesday through Saturday from noon to 4:00pm. The theater building is closed to the public during this time.
